

Assignments due: Sep 27

Below I have written all of the assignments due by next week. On the back is a copy with the assignments organized by day. You are welcome to complete all the assignments anytime before next week or following the proposed daily schedule.

- Read chapters 1-10 in The Rise and Fall of Mount Majestic.
- Complete a character sketch of Persimmony. Place a book dart to show where you got an idea from each section of your character sketch.
- Respond to two journal entries in your composition notebook. These entries should be at least four sentences, but certainly feel free to write as much as you like.
- Read “Little Red Riding Hood” and “The Story of Pretty Goldilocks” from The Blue Fairy Book.
- Complete a character sketch of Little Red Riding Hood. Place a book dart to show where you got an idea from each section of your character sketch.
- Read “The Enchanted Wreath” from The Orange Fairy Book.
- Read and complete page 19-21 of your Just Write book.
- Begin preparations for your narrative piece to represent what you have learned this term about narrative writing. You need to make three big decisions. Which type of narrative will you write? (Fiction, personal narrative or nonfiction narrative?). What will be the main topic? Also, complete a character sketch of your main character for the story. Write out these questions and your answers to show me. Be prepared to discuss these ideas with your group at writer’s workshop next week.

Please bring to class next week:

- The Rise and Fall of Mount Majestic
- Orange Fairy book
- Pencils
- Snack
- Book darts
- Assignment folder
- Washi tape
- Composition notebooks
- Blue Fairy Book
